Thank

It is with great regret Jerry Karbownik has stepped down from the position of Show Co-Ordinator for Warringal Orchid Society Winter & Spring Shows. Jerry has been the W.O.S. Show Co-Ordinator for the past 8 years. Jerry will still be helping us during this transitional period next year with the Winter & Spring shows in 2023. Jerry has always helped out at all of our shows even before accepting the top job as the show Co-Ordinator. I hope this will continue into the future.

He could sell you an orchid making it sound like it was the rarest orchid available. I know he enjoyed being in charge and bossing all of us around during the shows. His marketing experience helped our shows grow from strength to strength proving each year being bigger & better. He always gave the committee a great report after the shows, explaining what went right and what went wrong and suggesting how to improve for next year shows. All of our shows have always run very smoothly with him in charge.

Warringal Orchid Society would like to thank Jerry for all of his help & dedication over years with each of our shows.

All great men have a great woman behind them so we would also like to thank his wife Lara Karbownik for all of her dedication over the years with the fine eye to detail & her support to assist Jerry to make each & every show bigger & better.

What a great team they make.

A VERY BIG Thank-you to Jerry Karbownik from the Committee & friends.

Thank
You
